Reasons For Allowance

1. The following is an examiner's statement of reasons for allowance:

The primary reason for allowance of the claims is the inclusion of "automatically determining if said passed specific events conform with any of the settings of the defined specific event; notifying a specific event consumer of the occurrence of said specific events that meet a criteria of said specific purpose; using said specific event consumer to automatically report the occurrence of said specific events that meet a criteria of said specific purpose by using one of a plurality of filters that are independently defined in accordance with pre-established criteria, wherein the filter used is associated with said specific event consumer to determine which final event consumer is to receive said report and in which of a plurality of available formats said report is provided," in all of the independent claims. Lawson U.S patent # 5,721,825 and Boukobza et al. U.S patent # 6,122,664 do not have these limitations.

The Examiner's interpretation of the claim language is based upon Applicant's the argument received on 09 August 2004 (pages 16-18) and the enabling portions of the specification, (Fig. 1, Abstract, pages 9-15). Therefore, Applicant's instant claims are considered to be allowable.

2. Any comments considered necessary by applicant must be submitted no later than the payment of the issue fee and, to avoid processing delays, should preferably accompany the issue fee. Such submissions should be clearly labeled "Comments on Statement of Reasons for Allowance."
3. Claims 1-20 are allowed.
